VIII. 2004.6.

18. (1) A person seeking asylum in Malta in terms of article 8 shall be examined under accelerated procedures in accordance with this article when his application appears prima facie to be manifestly unfounded as defined in article 2.

(2) If after interviewing the applicant in accordance with the procedures outlined in article 8(1), the immigration officer is of the opinion that the application falls into one or more of the categories specified in subarticle (1)(a) to (c), he shall immediately submit a report in writing on the case, together with the application made by the person, to the Commissioner, and a copy of all the material sent to the Commissioner shall also be sent by the immigration officer to the Chairman of the Refugee Appeals Board.

(3) Where a report is made to the Commissioner under the foregoing provisions, the Commissioner shall examine the application without delay and in any case within three days after receiving the report from the immigration officer in accordance with subarticle (2).

(4) The Chairman of the Refugee Appeals Board shall, within three days and independently of the examination being carried out by the Commissioner, examine an application referred to him by the immigration officer in accordance with subarticle (2).

(5) The opinion of the Commissioner and the Chairman of the Refugee Appeals Board on any matter referred to them in accordance with subarticle (2) shall be formed independently of each other on the basis of a separate interview with the applicant, on the documentation provided by the immigration officer, and upon any other information from individuals, organisations or other authorities concerned which they may independently consider necessary and expedient for the purposes of carrying out a proper examination of the case.

(6) Any interview with the applicant under the foregoing provisions shall, where necessary, be conducted in private and with the assistance of an interpreter, and, if so desired by the applicant, in the presence of the High Commissioner. The applicant shall also be informed of his right to obtain the services of a lawyer to assist him during proceedings.

(7) The applicant concerned and the High Commissioner may make further representations, verbally or in writing, to the Commissioner and, or the Chairman of the Refugee Appeals Board, as the case may be, in relation to an investigation being carried out by them in pursuance of an application considered by the immigration officer to fall under one of the categories specified under subarticle (1)(b) and (c) if the applicant concerned claims on an individual and personal basis a serious risk to himself in a country otherwise considered as safe within the scope of the Convention, and the Commissioner and the Chairman of the Refugee Appeals Board shall consider any such representations.

(8) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this article, where in their decision the Commissioner and the Chairman of the Refugee Appeals Board independently of each other both come to the conclusion that the application falls under any one of the specific categories mentioned in subarticle (1)(a) to (c), the application shall be rejected and such decision shall be final and conclusive and notwithstanding the provisions of any other law no appeal or action for judicial review shall lie before the Refugee Appeals Board or before any other court of law. The decision, including the grounds therefor, shall be communicated by the Commissioner to the applicant orally, unless he requests its confirmation in writing.

(9) (a) Where, following the procedures outlined in the previous provisions of this article, an application has been rejected, the Commissioner shall send a copy of the decision together with the grounds therefor to -

- (i) the Minister,
- (ii) the Chairman of the Refugee Appeals Board,
- (iii) the High Commissioner, and

(11) For the purposes of subarticle (1)(b) and (c), the Minister may in writing through administrative procedures declare a country to be safe from persecution within the terms and scope of the Convention. The Minister may, also in writing through administrative procedures, declare a country to be no longer safe if, in his opinion, changes in its political or legal situation show that the requirements of the Convention as to protection have ceased to exist or have become unsatisfactory.

(12) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this article, if in the process of examining any application submitted in terms of article 8 of this Act, the Commissioner arrives at the conclusion that the application should be dealt with under accelerated procedures on the basis of its being manifestly unfounded or because the applicant has found or could have found safe protection elsewhere in terms of the Convention, the application shall be dealt with under accelerated procedures and the foregoing provisions of this article shall mutatis mutandis apply.

(13) For the purposes of subarticle (1)(c), if an applicant holds a travel document issued by a third safe country pursuant to the Convention, he shall be declared to have been safe from persecution in such state and his application shall be dealt with under accelerated procedures in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this article.

(5) A copy of the report shall be given by the immigration officer to the person interviewed who shall be informed that he may apply to the Commissioner for a reconsideration of his request for refugee status.

(7) A person in whose regard a report is drawn up under this article may within seven days from the date of the report apply to the Commissioner for a reconsideration of the opinion on inadmissibility.

(8) The Commissioner shall forthwith examine any application under subarticle (7) and shall consider any submissions made or evidence produced by the applicant seeking to show that he is not a person to whom this article applies.

(9) Where the application concerns a report as is referred to in subarticle (6) the Commissioner shall also consider any submissions made or evidence produced by the applicant seeking to show that:

- (a) the country declared in the report to be a safe country of origin is not a country to which the applicant may safely return; or
- (b) that the applicant would be subjected to torture, cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment were he to be returned to that country.
