

PENNSYLVANIA DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
INVITATION TO QUALIFY (ITQ)
INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

October 2017

Introduction

Pennsylvania recognizes that effective leadership is one of the most important predictors of student success in school. Act 45 of 2007 reflects Pennsylvania's commitment to excellent leadership in education by refocusing all professional education on the nine PA Leadership Standards (listed on page 2). The Department is seeking proposals from educational entities that want to be considered Approved Providers of continuing professional education for school and system leaders, as defined by Act 45 of 2007. This document describes the Department's expectations for professional education that is offered to school and system leaders. Successful applicants will meet the specifications outlined in this document, and the courses or programs submitted will be approved for a period of three (3) years.

This ITQ will be issued quarterly in the following months: January, April, July, and October.

Background

The law requires all principals and assistant principals who are employed after January 1, 2008, to complete a Principals' Induction Program that addresses the three core standards. The Department is required to provide a program at no cost to individuals or their school entities, and required participation is limited to 36 in-class hours per year, or a total of 108 in-class hours for the entire Principals' Induction Program.

The law also requires all school and system leaders (defined as principal, assistant or vice principal, superintendent, assistant superintendent, I.U. executive director, I.U. assistant executive director, and AVTS director) to meet their Act 48 continuing professional education requirements through programs that address the three core and the six corollary standards. The Department is required to provide a program of Continuing Professional Education for School and System Leaders at no cost to the individual or their school entity.

The Department is required to approve other providers for the Principals' Induction Program and the Continuing Professional Education for School and System Leaders and must annually publish the list of Approved Providers. The Approved Providers may charge a fee or tuition for the courses or programs that they offer.

Pennsylvania Department of Education Expectations for Professional Education for School and System Leaders

The context for professional education for school and system leaders is an aligned education system for improved student achievement. The PA Leadership Standards focus professional education on the key elements of that system. Quality leadership and a continuous learning ethic are the pillars that support a successful education system.

Approved courses or programs will be designed to help leaders:

- develop the knowledge and understanding required to create and continuously improve standards-aligned instructional systems.
- increase professional accountability through the Framework for Leadership domains.
- create and improve a data-driven culture (ie: Value Added Measures, Comprehensive Planning, SPP).
- design professional learning communities.
- focus on results-driven planning.

The Invitation to Qualify Process

The Invitation to Qualify Process permits providers to submit a course, program or Principal Induction Program for approval. All courses and programs must address core and/ or corollary standards as set forth in the Pennsylvania School Leadership Standards. Each of the three core standards must be addressed in Principal Induction Program applications.

If applicable, identify if the course or program refers to or is related to any of the Domains in the PDE Framework for Leadership. If the course or program is correlated this could provide a training tool for professional growth that will provide support for administrators.
