						Thank you for helping my child & giving us hope. Don't like taking student out of public school. Do not like school or class - poor services. I do not believe my child is making any progress in reading. I am really happy & satisfied with everything. I would like speech therapy to address articulation concerns and to help him with handwriting. The new teacher is wonderful. She shared progress on his IEP goals. My concern right now is speech therapy - it will help the child a lot. I am waiting for the results of the speech evaluation. Excellent school. Concerns about transition. Student's rights are not respected. Concerned about the student's transition into high school. Very satisfied with child's program & progress. I like the school & all help afforded. Teachers work hard & give children what is needed. We are all on same page. School respects parent input. Comfortable with all school's efforts. Very large (1400 students) school. Too large. Program is wonderful. Very happy with teachers & staff. School has turned student's attitude around. The child is very motivated & has gained self-confidence. Student has made wonderful progress. The teachers & staff are very supportive. Student now enjoys school work & is motivated to do it.
