						#3 – this Improvement Plan will allow closure for FSA 17 – Public School Enrollment The District will convene a team to review its evaluation procedures to ensure and document that accurate evaluations and reevaluations are being conducted using current and research-based assessment instruments as well as compliant procedures and practices, to ensure that all areas of suspected need are addressed and that eligible students are identified according to the disability category definitions in IDEA. The team must consist of at least the Special Education Director and the School Psychologist(s); other members as desired.	EVIDENCE OF CHANGE: The District will submit to the Advisor a memo which lists the team’s members with their roles as indicated above, the date(s) the team met, and the team’s findings. The memo must summarize decision(s) made for revisions to the District’s evaluation and reevaluation procedures and practices as indicated by the team’s review, and an implementation plan which articulates the action(s) to be taken, the person(s) responsible, and the timeline(s) for action completion(s). The memo must be submitted to the Advisor before the due date.	07/31/2020  District resources; IU & PaTTAN resources are available if requested.
						#4 – this Improvement Plan will allow closure for FSA 15A – Parent Survey The District will offer a Survey to parents of special education students, which solicits parent input as to their needs for training in specific topics related to special education in the Southern Columbia School District. The Survey could be a version of the Parent Survey used for preparation for the 2018-19 monitoring of the District, or it could be developed by the District, at District expense. The Survey must be offered to parent(s) of special education students (one per household) enrolled in the District during the 2019-20 school year, at their child(ren)’s IEP meeting, or if no parent attends the annual IEP team meeting, mailed home to the student’s parent(s). A link to a digital version must be posted on the District’s website throughout the 2019-20 school year. Three previously-untried methods of announcing the Survey availability to parents of special education students must be made. The results of the Survey must be compiled and analyzed to determine three topics for parent trainings during the 2020-21 school year. The trainings indicated by the Survey results must be scheduled and held during the 2020-21 school year.	EVIDENCE OF CHANGE: A memo summarizing the Survey results, detailing the three previously-untried methods of informing parents of the Survey availability and identifying one method of the three which seems to be most effective, which will be added to the repertoire of parent engagement activities at Southern Columbia School District, and agendas for each training held for parents during the 2020-21 school year, along with sign-in sheets or similar, must be provided to the Advisor before the due date	07/31/2021  District resources; IU & PaTTAN resources are available if requested

						#5 – this Improvement Plan will allow closure of FSA 19A – Teacher Survey In response to the information gathered in the CMCI Teacher Survey, the District will provide three personnel development opportunities in the following areas: a. the requirements of federal and state regulations relating to each IEP team's duty to consider the regular education setting with supplementary aids and services as appropriate, as the first option when determining where the student's educational services will be provided; b. differentiated instruction in the regular education classroom, and c. District choice, from the requests by teachers as identified in the Teacher Survey. These opportunities must be offered to all special education teachers, regular education teachers, paraprofessionals, administrators, and parents.	EVIDENCE OF CHANGE: The District will submit to the Advisor before the due date, documentation of having offered these personnel development activities. Documentation will include training agendas with dates, presenters, and topics listed, and sign-in sheets for each activity, with each attendee's role and work location specified – special education teacher; regular education teacher; paraprofessional; administrator; and parent (specify grade level of the parents' special education students).	07/31/2020  District resources; IU & PaTTAN resources are available if requested
