Title II Program Completer Pass Rates

The pass rate results of students who have completed their teacher education program at a Pennsylvania college or university and have taken Praxis assessments required to gain a Pennsylvania instructional certificate are available at the Title II website. Once at that page, move to Select a State, which appears at the top right of the page. When at the Pennsylvania site, pass rates are provided in the teacher assessments item (lower left side).