Real World Skills Through FCS Education

Say Yes to FCS

- ✓ Are you interested in fashion, nutrition and wellness, interior design, consumer studies, finance or human growth and development?
- ✓ Do you use your creative skills to solve problems?
- ✓ Would you like to counsel students as they prepare for their future careers?
- ✓ Do you have leadership skills?
- ✓ Would you like to be an FCCLA Adviser?

If you said YES to the above, then a career in Family and Consumer Sciences (FCS) may be right for you - Say YES to FCS!

There is a shortage with high demand statewide and nationally for Family and Consumer Sciences educators in secondary schools, higher education and Penn State Extension.
