Dear Mr. Mahon:

I am pleased to inform you that school districts will be able to continue reducing local property taxes in the 2017-2018 school year as a result of the distribution of state gaming funds through the Taxpayer Relief Act, also known as Special Session Act 1 of 2006.

As required by law, the Commonwealth’s Budget Secretary certified on April 15, 2017, that $619,300,000 will be available in 2017-2018 for state-funded local tax relief. When combined with the expansion of the senior citizen Property Tax/Rent Rebate program, total state-funded property tax relief will reach $765 million next year.

I am writing to notify you that Abington Heights SD’s property tax reduction allocation for 2017-2018 is $814,406.22.

Please see section 343 of Act 1 for details about what information must appear on the tax bill, including the requirement for a “Notice of Property Tax Relief.” School districts may also reject their property tax reduction allocation, as described in Chapter 9 of the law.

New Oxford, PA 17350-1206

Dear Dr. Greenholt:

I am pleased to inform you that school districts will be able to continue reducing local property taxes in the 2017-2018 school year as a result of the distribution of state gaming funds through the Taxpayer Relief Act, also known as Special Session Act 1 of 2006.

As required by law, the Commonwealth’s Budget Secretary certified on April 15, 2017, that $619,300,000 will be available in 2017-2018 for state-funded local tax relief. When combined with the expansion of the senior citizen Property Tax/Rent Rebate program, total state-funded property tax relief will reach $765 million next year.

I am writing to notify you that Conewago Valley SD’s property tax reduction allocation for 2017-2018 is $919,489.57.

Your allocation is made up of $913,781.56 from the property tax relief formula and $5,708.01 in Sterling Act reimbursements, which have both been prorated based on the total funds available for tax relief.

Conewago Valley SD must reduce property taxes by $919,489.57 through a homestead and farmstead exclusion. Please see section 343 of Act 1 for details about what information must appear on the tax bill, including the requirement for a “Notice of Property Tax Relief.” School districts may also reject their property tax reduction allocation, as described in Chapter 9 of the law.

The detailed data used to calculate your school district’s allocation is available for review at www.education.pa.gov. Select Teachers and Administrators then Property Tax Relief.

Before finalizing the school district’s real estate tax rate and preparing real estate tax bills, it is important to assure that the homestead/farmstead exclusion (i.e., reduction in assessed value) does not exceed 50 percent of the median assessed value of homestead properties pursuant to 53 Pa CS 8586.

Questions concerning these calculations may be directed to Benjamin Hanft at either (717) 787-5423, option 5 or ra-PropertyTax@pa.gov.

Please see section 343 of Act 1 for details about what information must appear on the tax bill, including the requirement for a “Notice of Property Tax Relief.” School districts may also reject their property tax reduction allocation, as described in Chapter 9 of the law.

Dear Dr. Aiken:

I am pleased to inform you that school districts will be able to continue reducing local property taxes in the 2017-2018 school year as a result of the distribution of state gaming funds through the Taxpayer Relief Act, also known as Special Session Act 1 of 2006.

As required by law, the Commonwealth’s Budget Secretary certified on April 15, 2017, that $619,300,000 will be available in 2017-2018 for state-funded local tax relief. When combined with the expansion of the senior citizen Property Tax/Rent Rebate program, total state-funded property tax relief will reach $765 million next year.

I am writing to notify you that Manheim Central SD’s property tax reduction allocation for 2017-2018 is $837,964.57.

Your allocation is made up of $826,384.01 from the property tax relief formula and $11,580.56 in Sterling Act reimbursements, which have both been prorated based on the total funds available for tax relief.

Manheim Central SD must reduce property taxes by $837,964.57 through a homestead and farmstead exclusion. Please see section 343 of Act 1 for details about what information must appear on the tax bill, including the requirement for a “Notice of Property Tax Relief.” School districts may also reject their property tax reduction allocation, as described in Chapter 9 of the law.

The detailed data used to calculate your school district’s allocation is available for review at www.education.pa.gov. Select Teachers and Administrators then Property Tax Relief.

Before finalizing the school district’s real estate tax rate and preparing real estate tax bills, it is important to assure that the homestead/farmstead exclusion (i.e., reduction in assessed value) does not exceed 50 percent of the median assessed value of homestead properties pursuant to 53 Pa CS 8586.

Questions concerning these calculations may be directed to Benjamin Hanft at either (717) 787-5423, option 5 or ra-PropertyTax@pa.gov.

Midland, PA  15059-1469

Dear Mr. Tanner:

I am pleased to inform you that school districts will be able to continue reducing local property taxes in the 2017-2018 school year as a result of the distribution of state gaming funds through the Taxpayer Relief Act, also known as Special Session Act 1 of 2006.

As required by law, the Commonwealth’s Budget Secretary certified on April 15, 2017, that $619,300,000 will be available in 2017-2018 for state-funded local tax relief. When combined with the expansion of the senior citizen Property Tax/Rent Rebate program, total state-funded property tax relief will reach $765 million next year.

I am writing to notify you that Midland Borough SD’s property tax reduction allocation for 2017-2018 is $88,777.20.

Your allocation is made up of $88,671.89 from the property tax relief formula and $105.31 in Sterling Act reimbursements, which have both been prorated based on the total funds available for tax relief.

Please see section 343 of Act 1 for details about what information must appear on the tax bill, including the requirement for a “Notice of Property Tax Relief.” School districts may also reject their property tax reduction allocation, as described in Chapter 9 of the law.

The detailed data used to calculate your school district’s allocation is available for review at www.education.pa.gov. Select Teachers and Administrators then Property Tax Relief.

Before finalizing the school district’s real estate tax rate and preparing real estate tax bills, it is important to assure that the homestead/farmstead exclusion (i.e., reduction in assessed value) does not exceed 50 percent of the median assessed value of homestead properties pursuant to 53 Pa CS 8586.

Questions concerning these calculations may be directed to Benjamin Hanft at either (717) 787-5423, option 5 or ra-PropertyTax@pa.gov.

Please see section 343 of Act 1 for details about what information must appear on the tax bill, including the requirement for a “Notice of Property Tax Relief.” School districts may also reject their property tax reduction allocation, as described in Chapter 9 of the law.

Dear Dr. Guarino:

As required by law, the Commonwealth’s Budget Secretary certified on April 15, 2017, that $619,300,000 will be available in 2017-2018 for state-funded local tax relief. When combined with the expansion of the senior citizen Property Tax/Rent Rebate program, total state-funded property tax relief will reach $765 million next year.

I am writing to notify you that New Brighton Area SD’s property tax reduction allocation for 2017-2018 is $671,363.92.

Your allocation is made up of $671,328.70 from the property tax relief formula and $ 35.22 in Sterling Act reimbursements, which have both been prorated based on the total funds available for tax relief.

Please see section 343 of Act 1 for details about what information must appear on the tax bill, including the requirement for a “Notice of Property Tax Relief.” School districts may also reject their property tax reduction allocation, as described in Chapter 9 of the law.

Dear Dr. Mata:

I am pleased to inform you that school districts will be able to continue reducing local property taxes in the 2017-2018 school year as a result of the distribution of state gaming funds through the Taxpayer Relief Act, also known as Special Session Act 1 of 2006.

As required by law, the Commonwealth’s Budget Secretary certified on April 15, 2017, that $619,300,000 will be available in 2017-2018 for state-funded local tax relief. When combined with the expansion of the senior citizen Property Tax/Rent Rebate program, total state-funded property tax relief will reach $765 million next year.

I am writing to notify you that Schuylkill Valley SD’s property tax reduction allocation for 2017-2018 is $591,058.01.

Your allocation is made up of $584,874.34 from the property tax relief formula and $6,183.67 in Sterling Act reimbursements, which have both been prorated based on the total funds available for tax relief.

Schuylkill Valley SD must reduce property taxes by $591,058.01 through a homestead and farmstead exclusion. Please see section 343 of Act 1 for details about what information must appear on the tax bill, including the requirement for a “Notice of Property Tax Relief.” School districts may also reject their property tax reduction allocation, as described in Chapter 9 of the law.

The detailed data used to calculate your school district’s allocation is available for review at www.education.pa.gov. Select Teachers and Administrators then Property Tax Relief.

Questions concerning these calculations may be directed to Benjamin Hanft at either (717) 787-5423, option 5 or ra-PropertyTax@pa.gov.

Dear Dr. Angelucci:

I am pleased to inform you that school districts will be able to continue reducing local property taxes in the 2017-2018 school year as a result of the distribution of state gaming funds through the Taxpayer Relief Act, also known as Special Session Act 1 of 2006.

As required by law, the Commonwealth’s Budget Secretary certified on April 15, 2017, that $619,300,000 will be available in 2017-2018 for state-funded local tax relief. When combined with the expansion of the senior citizen Property Tax/Rent Rebate program, total state-funded property tax relief will reach $765 million next year.

I am writing to notify you that Slippery Rock Area SD’s property tax reduction allocation for 2017-2018 is $655,647.28.

Your allocation is made up of $655,627.97 from the property tax relief formula and $ 19.31 in Sterling Act reimbursements, which have both been prorated based on the total funds available for tax relief.

Please see section 343 of Act 1 for details about what information must appear on the tax bill, including the requirement for a “Notice of Property Tax Relief.” School districts may also reject their property tax reduction allocation, as described in Chapter 9 of the law.

Please see section 343 of Act 1 for details about what information must appear on the tax bill, including the requirement for a “Notice of Property Tax Relief.” School districts may also reject their property tax reduction allocation, as described in Chapter 9 of the law.

Dr. Robert J O'Donnell
Superintendent
State College Area SD
131 W Nittany Ave
State College, PA  16801-4812

Dear Dr. O'Donnell:

I am pleased to inform you that school districts will be able to continue reducing local property taxes in the 2017-2018 school year as a result of the distribution of state gaming funds through the Taxpayer Relief Act, also known as Special Session Act 1 of 2006.

As required by law, the Commonwealth’s Budget Secretary certified on April 15, 2017, that $619,300,000 will be available in 2017-2018 for state-funded local tax relief. When combined with the expansion of the senior citizen Property Tax/Rent Rebate program, total state-funded property tax relief will reach $765 million next year.

I am writing to notify you that State College Area SD’s property tax reduction allocation for 2017-2018 is $1,424,050.00.

Your allocation is made up of $1,419,596.25 from the property tax relief formula and $4,453.75 in Sterling Act reimbursements, which have both been prorated based on the total funds available for tax relief.

State College Area SD must reduce property taxes by $1,424,050.00 through a homestead and farmstead exclusion. Please see section 343 of Act 1 for details about what information must appear on the tax bill, including the requirement for a “Notice of Property Tax Relief.” School districts may also reject their property tax reduction allocation, as described in Chapter 9 of the law.

The detailed data used to calculate your school district’s allocation is available for review at www.education.pa.gov. Select Teachers and Administrators then Property Tax Relief.

Before finalizing the school district’s real estate tax rate and preparing real estate tax bills, it is important to assure that the homestead/farmstead exclusion (i.e., reduction in assessed value) does not exceed 50 percent of the median assessed value of homestead properties pursuant to 53 Pa CS 8586.

Questions concerning these calculations may be directed to Benjamin Hanft at either (717) 787-5423, option 5 or ra-PropertyTax@pa.gov.

Valley View, PA  17983-9423

Dear Dr. Snyder:

I am pleased to inform you that school districts will be able to continue reducing local property taxes in the 2017-2018 school year as a result of the distribution of state gaming funds through the Taxpayer Relief Act, also known as Special Session Act 1 of 2006.

As required by law, the Commonwealth’s Budget Secretary certified on April 15, 2017, that $619,300,000 will be available in 2017-2018 for state-funded local tax relief. When combined with the expansion of the senior citizen Property Tax/Rent Rebate program, total state-funded property tax relief will reach $765 million next year.

I am writing to notify you that Tri-Valley SD’s property tax reduction allocation for 2017-2018 is $242,127.51.

Your allocation is made up of $241,185.34 from the property tax relief formula and $942.17 in Sterling Act reimbursements, which have both been prorated based on the total funds available for tax relief.

Tri-Valley SD must reduce property taxes by $242,127.51 through a homestead and farmstead exclusion. Please see section 343 of Act 1 for details about what information must appear on the tax bill, including the requirement for a “Notice of Property Tax Relief.” School districts may also reject their property tax reduction allocation, as described in Chapter 9 of the law.

The detailed data used to calculate your school district’s allocation is available for review at www.education.pa.gov. Select Teachers and Administrators then Property Tax Relief.

Before finalizing the school district’s real estate tax rate and preparing real estate tax bills, it is important to assure that the homestead/farmstead exclusion (i.e., reduction in assessed value) does not exceed 50 percent of the median assessed value of homestead properties pursuant to 53 Pa CS 8586.

Questions concerning these calculations may be directed to Benjamin Hanft at either (717) 787-5423, option 5 or ra-PropertyTax@pa.gov.

Dear Dr. Parkins:

I am pleased to inform you that school districts will be able to continue reducing local property taxes in the 2017-2018 school year as a result of the distribution of state gaming funds through the Taxpayer Relief Act, also known as Special Session Act 1 of 2006.

As required by law, the Commonwealth’s Budget Secretary certified on April 15, 2017, that $619,300,000 will be available in 2017-2018 for state-funded local tax relief. When combined with the expansion of the senior citizen Property Tax/Rent Rebate program, total state-funded property tax relief will reach $765 million next year.

I am writing to notify you that United SD’s property tax reduction allocation for 2017-2018 is $446,583.03.

Please see section 343 of Act 1 for details about what information must appear on the tax bill, including the requirement for a “Notice of Property Tax Relief.” School districts may also reject their property tax reduction allocation, as described in Chapter 9 of the law.

The detailed data used to calculate your school district’s allocation is available for review at www.education.pa.gov. Select Teachers and Administrators then Property Tax Relief.

Questions concerning these calculations may be directed to Benjamin Hanft at either (717) 787-5423, option 5 or ra-PropertyTax@pa.gov.
