Date	Description	Section
August 22, 2019	Department of Education pays school districts 50 percent of their state allocation of property tax reduction funding. This only occurs if the Secretary of the Budget certifies, by April 15, 2019, that there are enough funds in the Property Tax Relief Fund to make a distribution to school districts in 2019-2020.	Section 505(b)
September 6, 2019 (60 days prior to general election)	School district deadline to submit referendum question seeking voter approval of tax rate increase in excess of index to the county board of elections unless request for referendum exception has been submitted to Department of Education. If the school district's proposed tax rate increase would exceed the index even if all of its referendum exception requests were approved, and if it intends to submit a referendum question for that part of the tax rate increase, it must do so by this date.	Section 333(c)(3)
September 11, 2019 (55 days prior to general election)	Deadline for Department of Education to issue ruling on school district's petition for referendum exception.	Section 333(j)(5)
September 16, 2019 (50 days prior to general election)	School district deadline, if the Department of Education denies all or a part of the school district's request for referendum exception, to submit to the county board of elections referendum question seeking voter approval of tax rate increase in excess of index for the portion of the referendum exception request denied.	Section 333(j)(5)
October 24, 2019	Department of Education pays school districts 50 percent of their state allocation of property tax reduction funding. This only occurs if the Secretary of the Budget certifies, by April 15, 2019, that there are enough funds in the Property Tax Relief Fund to make a distribution to school districts in 2019-2020.	Section 505(b)
Prior to November 5, 2019	General election. County election officials, in conjunction with board of school directors, shall draft a non-legal interpretive statement to accompany referendum question that references items of expenditure for which tax rate increases are being sought. (See September 6 or 16, 2019.)	Section 333(c)(4)
Prior to November 5, 2019	General election. For school districts that rejected 2019-2020 state property tax relief allocation, county election officials shall place a referendum question on the ballot for voters to determine if the school district will be eligible to receive State property tax relief allocation in 2019-2020. In addition, county election officials, in conjunction with the school board, shall draft a non-legal interpretive statement to accompany the referendum question. (See May 31 and August 4, 2019.)
