

Title: FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES/HUMAN SCIENCES, OTHER

Code: 19.9999

Career Cluster: Human Services

| Certification Required | Certification Method | Occupational Competency Area | Occupational Competency Evaluation |
|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| Family & Consumer Sciences 5600 | Instructional (degree program) | N/A | N/A |

Description: This program prepares individuals to apply knowledge and skills in the consumer service field. Instruction is provided in the basic skills in a variety of areas associated with consumer service such as protective service; food and beverage preparation and service; personal service; and building and grounds service. Instruction includes but is not limited to care and guidance of children and adults; nutrition and meal planning; managing and performing household tasks; cleaning and caring for various residential and industrial surfaces and materials; scheduling work; purchasing supplies; controlling costs; caring for fabric and textiles; custody and security procedures; administrative responsibilities; crisis intervention; institutional policies, regulations and operations; and use and care of equipment.

Notes: The following certificates remain valid for teaching in this program:

Home Economics 5605
Fabric Maintenance Services 2037
Consumer Services 2022
Homemakers Aide 2212
Textile Production & Fabrication 2071