						P 69. Additional comments about your child's program. The state should use West Shore as a model district for surrounding districts. My family has not had the great experiences all my children had in West Shore. Teachers are so knowledgeable, and listen when I disagree with them. They compromise well and are willing to let my child try. The staff is helpful and understanding. They set the bar high and always model problem solving and high expectations. *like a different child. *We are very pleased with the progress. Program suits my child at this time. I'm very happy with this placement.
